

Audrey Andrews SVP and Chief Compliance Officer

Audrey Andrews, senior vice president and chief compliance officer of Tenet Healthcare Corporation, oversees and is ultimately responsible for the company's ethics and compliance program. Andrews reports directly to the Quality, Compliance and Ethics committee of Tenet's Board of Directors.

Prior to her appointment as chief compliance officer in 2006, Andrews served as vice president and assistant general counsel for Tenet's regulatory affairs. In that position, she led the law department regulatory group handling Medicare reimbursement, quality of care, and other regulatory issues. She was promoted to senior vice president in 2008.

Andrews joined Tenet in 1998 as hospital operations counsel. She joined the compliance section of the law department a year later and began providing legal advice on Medicare reimbursement issues, quality of care, and other specialty areas such as EMTALA and HIPAA.

She earned both her bachelor's degree in government and a juris doctorate from the University of Texas at Austin.

Andrews is a member of the Health Care Compliance Association, the Health Care Compliance Association, the American and Texas Bar Associations and the American Health Lawyers Association. She serves on the Law and Operational Policy Committee and the Quality Committee of the Federation of American Hospitals.
