

Biggs C. Porter CFO

Biggs C. Porter serves as chief financial officer of Tenet Healthcare Corporation.

Porter is in charge of the company's finance, accounting, investor relations and related functions.

He joined Tenet in June 2006 from Raytheon Co. where he served as vice president and corporate controller. His earlier positions at Raytheon include principal accounting officer and acting chief financial officer.

Before Raytheon, he was senior vice president and corporate controller of TXU Corp., a large public utility based in Dallas.

He previously held positions as chief financial officer of Northrop Grumman Corporation's integrated systems sector; vice president, controller and assistant treasurer of Vought Aircraft Company; and corporate manager of external financial reporting for LTV Corporation.

He began his career in various audit positions with the accounting firm of Arthur Young and Co. in Dallas and Houston.

A certified public accountant, Porter holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Duke University and a master's degree in accounting from the University of Texas, Austin. He has twice been selected as one of the 100 Most Influential People in Finance by Treasury and Risk Magazine.
