

Britt T. Reynolds President of Hospital Operations

Britt T. Reynolds is president of hospital operations for Tenet Healthcare Corporation. In this new role reporting to Tenet's CEO, Reynolds will be responsible for Tenet's operations consisting of 50 hospitals and more than 90 outpatient facilities primarily serving urban and suburban communities in 13 states. Reynolds will also oversee the company's Medicare Performance Initiative, managed care department, business development and marketing activities.

For more than 24 years, Reynolds has held executive leadership roles in the proprietary and investor-owned hospital sector at major healthcare organizations including HMA, HCA, Humana, Community Health Systems and not-for-profit systems. Before joining Tenet in 2012, Reynolds served as senior vice president and division president at Health Management Associates, Inc. (HMA), where he oversaw HMA's largest division, encompassing 20 hospitals and related facilities in seven states. During his tenure at HMA, he led the integration of several acquisitions, including the company's largest and most recent for a seven hospital system, as well as numerous outpatient center transactions. He also strengthened HMA's approach in building physician relationships and was instrumental in implementing core company-wide operational, logistical and cultural initiatives.

Reynolds is a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives (FACHE). He earned a bachelor's of arts degree in psychology from the University of Louisville, graduating cum laude. He also earned a master of business administration from Baker University in Baldwin City, Kan.
