

Trevor Fetter President and Chief Executive Officer Tenet Healthcare Corporation

Trevor Fetter was named President and Chief Executive Officer of Tenet Healthcare in September 2003. He originally joined Tenet in 1995, serving in positions including Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer and as a member of the Office of the President. In these roles, he oversaw many of the company's corporate functions, including the areas of finance, law, information systems, human resources, communications and administration, and was actively involved in the areas of future strategic initiatives, acquisitions and new ventures.

He left Tenet in February 2000 to serve as Chairman and CEO of Broadlane, Inc., a leading provider of cost management services to hospitals that was founded by Tenet and several other major health care providers. Mr. Fetter returned to Tenet in November 2002 as President and was named acting CEO in May 2003.

Mr. Fetter holds a master's degree in business administration from the Harvard Business School and a bachelor's degree in economics from Stanford University. He began his career with Merrill Lynch Capital Markets, where he concentrated on corporate finance and advisory services for the entertainment and health care industries. In 1988 he joined Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Inc., where he had a broad range of corporate and operating responsibilities, rising to Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.

Mr. Fetter served as the Chairman of the Federation of American Hospitals (FAH), the industry association that represents investor-owned or managed community hospitals and health systems from March 2009 to March 2010 and is on the board of The Hartford Financial Services Group, Inc. (NYSE:HIG). He is a member of the Business Roundtable and serves on the Harvard Business School Healthcare Initiative Advisory Board.

Mr. Fetter was elected to Tenet's board of directors in September 2003. He is a member of the Executive Committee.
