Tenet Agrees to Sell Parkway Regional Medical Center to the Public Health Trust of Miami-Dade County in Florida

DALLAS – Oct. 11, 2006 – Tenet Healthcare Corporation (NYSE: THC) announced today that a company subsidiary has signed a definitive agreement to sell Parkway Regional Medical Center, a 382-bed acute care hospital located in North Miami Beach, Fla., to the Public Health Trust of Miami-Dade County, Fla., which operates Jackson Health System. Pre-tax proceeds are expected to be approximately $35 million. Tenet expects to use the proceeds for general corporate purposes.

Under the agreement, the Public Health Trust has committed to offer employment to substantially all current employees who are in good standing who meet their conditions of employment. The transaction is subject to Miami-Dade County Commission and other regulatory approvals. The County is expected to vote on the transaction at a later date. The sale is expected to be completed by Dec. 31, 2006.

Jackson Health System is an integrated healthcare delivery system consisting of Jackson Memorial Hospital, Jackson South Community Hospital, Holtz Children's Hospital, Jackson Rehabilitation Hospital and a network of primary care clinics, long-term care nursing facilities, school-based clinics, mental health facilities and Corrections Health Services clinics. Jackson Health System is governed by the Public Health Trust, a team of citizen volunteers acting on behalf of the Miami-Dade Board of County Commissioners.

In June 2006, Tenet announced that Parkway Regional Medical Center was among 11 hospitals identified for divestiture as part of the company's ongoing turnaround initiative.

Tenet has announced the completion of the sale of Cleveland Clinic Hospital of Weston, Fla. to Cleveland Clinic, and the completion of the sale of Kenner Regional Medical Center, Meadowcrest Hospital and Memorial Medical Center, all in the New Orleans area, to Ochsner Health System. Pre-tax proceeds for these four hospitals are expected to be approximately $138.5 million. Discussions and negotiations with potential bidders for each of the remaining six hospitals, plus Encino-Tarzana Regional Medical Center-Encino campus and Encino-Tarzana Regional Medical Center-Tarzana campus in California that were previously announced for sale, are ongoing.

Tenet Healthcare Corporation, through its subsidiaries, owns and operates acute care hospitals and related health care services. Tenet's hospitals aim to provide the best possible care to every patient who comes through their doors, with a clear focus on quality and service.
